Company:	Graham Heath Construction
Salary:	Negotiable depending on experience
Hours of work:	Full-time (7-4pm)
Location:	Graham Heath Construction Ltd, The Old Creamery, Wrenbury Industrial Estate, Station Road, Wrenbury, Cheshire, CW5 8EX

Due to the continued success of Graham Heath Construction, an exciting opportunity has arisen for a Steel Cleaner to join our thriving team in Wrenbury near Nantwich, to help with the fabrication side of the business.

This is a fantastic opportunity to work for an established and progressive company. In return, you will receive a competitive salary (negotiable depending upon experience) along with a comprehensive benefits package, which includes a company pension, free parking and generous holiday allowance.

Key responsibilities and duties:

The key responsibility to this role will be cleaning a large amount of steel with a metal grinder on a daily basis. During busy periods throughout the year, you will be expected to help out in other areas of the yard where possible. This will provide you with the opportunity to learn new areas of the business and shows your capability of being a team player.

Desirable skills:

- Self-motivated and able to work to their own initiative
- Good eye for detail
- Good health & safety awareness

FULL TRAINING WILL BE GIVEN.

Competitive salary – negotiable depending on experience.

Generous holiday allowance.

Great working conditions in a friendly environment & team.

Overtime always available.

Hours: Monday to Friday 7am – 4pm
